

Dubai Properties becomes exclusive national Partner for FDI -AEEDC 2007

5-Jun-2006

Dubai Properties, a member of Dubai Holding, has announced that it will be the exclusive National Partner of the FDI Annual World Dental Congress and the UAE International Dental Conference and Arab Dental Exhibition (AEEDC) 2007. The exhibition and conference will be held in Dubai from 24-26 October, 2007.

Signing Ceremony

The agreement was signed by Mohammed bin Brek, COO of Dubai Projects, and JT Bernard, CEO of the Federation Dentaire Internationale. Also in attendance was Fahed Al Gerghawi, Director of International Relations, Dubai Properties, and representatives from INDEX, the organizers of the event.

Speaking about the agreement, Mohammed bin Brek, said: "The agreement comes in line with DP's plans to support its corporate social responsibility through sponsoring and supporting local, regional and international events that contribute towards a creating better life for communities."

He added that the DP's sponsorship of this international event would also promote the private sector's contribution towards other sectors.

According to the agreement, Dubai Properties will be the exclusive National Partner of the FDI, which will be held this year in China and in Dubai in 2007. DP will also be involved in other related activities organized by INDEX in the USA, Brazil and other GCC and European countries.

Dr. Bernard, CEO of FDI, said: "This is the first time since FDI's inception that we have partnered with a non-medical corporation for such an international event. This cooperation will benefit the FDI, Dubai Properties and INDEX."
